Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company Gets Decision Against Atlantic Coast Line.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., June 17.—As the others. result of a decision made to-day by the case of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company against the Atlantic Coast Line Rallroad Company, it is expected that the rallroad company will, within the next few weeks, refund several to the case of the Virginia-Carolina dwelling house, No. 314 East Bakes Street. The lot fronts 36 feet and inches on the north line of Baker Street. the Interstate Commerce Commission fund several hundred overcharge collections which have recently been exacted in shipments of fertilizers from Wadesboro, N. C., to South Carolina points. The commission says that as the charges were clearly unjustifiable, the railroad company must return to lections which have recently been ex-acted in shipments of fertilizers from the railroad company must return to the railroad company must return to shippers what it has illegally and wrongfully forced them to pay.

Complainant is a corporation, the commission says, having its principal office at Richmond. Its petition, filed April 12, 1912, attacks as unreasonable and unduly discriminatory, an advance in rates for the transportation of fertilizer from Wadesboro to points on defendant's line in South Carolina, effective February 26, 1912. The establishment of rexsonable rates and reparation are asked.

Prior to February 26, 1912, defendant's rates for the transportation of fertilizer from Wadesboro to local points in South Carolina were made on the south side of representation of the purchase more asked.
